

What makes Sinclair above the laws regarding political statements 30 days before the election? Can all the other companies now feel free to do pro-Kerry programming up to the election? What exactly is separating us from states that give only one-sided "news" such as Cuba, Saudi Arabia, Russia etc? This must not be allowed.